Squash at the Boathouse

We are pleased to welcome our new Squash Pro Karim Ibrahim. Karim is currently a senior at St. Lawrence University where he is majoring in Economics and Business while captaining the men's squash team. Between the ages of 13 – 18, Karim played for the Egyptian National Team. Throughout his junior career he reached the highest ranking of #2 nationally and #3 in the world. Since being at St. Lawrence, Karim earned the First team All-American in 2018 as well as becoming a two-year captain for one of the most successful squash programs in the country.
